Submission Detail

Explanation as to why you have changed the times allowing dog owners free reign on McCrae Beach during off season. It is almost dark at 5pm to 9am during the winter months. As a female I do not feel safe taking my dogs along the deserted beach...and the beaches are deserted during these months of cold, wind and rain conditions. There was no notification of this change only a newly appointed ranger who was unaware the beach had been a free dog beach for decades. Please reconsider these times to best suit the many dog lovers of this shire in particular ensuring the safety of the female walkers Thank you Jeannie Birch
