VC37~~Policy basis~~ [Rule 5 Not PPF format]

~~The Mornington Peninsula was mainly occupied by the Bunurong people prior to the arrival of European settlers. Places site and objects demonstrating former Aboriginal occupation of the land can be found throughout the Mornington Peninsula, particularly in coastal areas. These places site and objects have cultural educational and archaeological significance for the local Aboriginal community and the broader community. The identification, protection and management of identified sites and objects is provided for by the Archaeological and Aboriginal Relics Preservation Act 1972 and the Commonwealth and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Protection Act 1984.~~
