

Expression of Interest - PACE 2026

Would you like to assist the Morrington Peninsula Shire to help make the communities of the peninsula a place to age-well? We may have the opportunity for you!

We're currently looking for new members to join our Peninsula Advisory Committee for Elders.

The Peninsula Advisory Committee for Elders (PACE) is a community advisory committee of the Shire whose purpose is to advocate, advise and make recommendations to Council on creating age friendly communities for older people on the Peninsula. PACE has been running since 2006 and meets around 9 to 10 times a year during business hours.

Community members who are interested in joining need to meet the below criteria:

- Must be over 50 years of age
- Live full-time or part-time on the Peninsula
- Have an interest in ageing well

How to submit your Expression of Interest

Please complete the form below to register your interest.

Submissions are now open and close Wednesday 26 August 2026.

Hard copy forms are available upon request at our Customer Service Centres. If you have any questions, please contact:

The Positive Ageing Officer on 5950 1090 or via positiveageing@mornpen.vic.gov.au.
